

Condissonance is an organisation aiming to the promotion and diffusion of music to achieve a well round development of people.
It works by promoting knowledge and understanding of various kinds of music, by supporting the organisation of workshops, competitions, masterclasses, and performances.

Condissonance is proud to present:

forte | piano

an online piano competition open to participants of all ages and nationality and focused on the 2017/2018

curriculum of the Associate Board of the Royal Schools of Music.

For further information please follow
